Chain and Pendant of Lapis Lazuli and Onyx - Gerard Sandoz, 1928

The original design is probably from Gerard Sandoz, 1928. The piece, from which we have reconstructed our pendant differs clearly, both in dimensions and material from the ones shown in the literature. The pendant with the form of a stylized banjo, consists of two semi circular lapis lazulis and one longish onyx. The plate, worked of white and bright gold, is attached to a snake chain.
