

masters of modernism

Bauhaus Floor Lamp - Gyula Pap, 1923

BST 23

This floor lamp, now manufactured in series for the first time, was designed by the Hungarian Gyula Pap at the metal workshop of the Staatlichen Bauhaus in Weimar. One model of this lamp was found in the famous Bauhaus model home "Haus am Horn". The reproduction is faithful to the original, following Pap's specifications, and with the permission of the Bauhaus Archives in Berlin.

Lacquered black iron, nickel plated brass, frosted glass plate.
Includes anti-glare cap.

Each lamp is consecutively numbered and bears this logo: TECNOLUMEN
BAUHAUS

