

masters of modernism

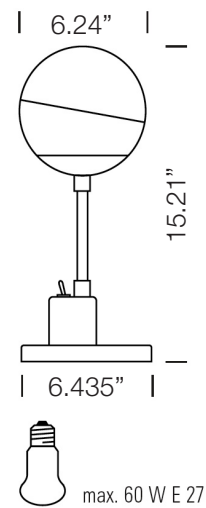

Table Lamp with Hemisphere - Sweden, circa 1928

SF 28

The design of this lamp originated with the group of architects who were active in Swedish functionalism and contemporary with the Bauhaus. The polished aluminum cowl is held on the glass by friction alone. The reflector can be adjusted as desired for glare free illumination.

Chrome plated or black lacquered metal, polished aluminum, opaque glass.

Each lamp is consecutively numbered and bears this logo: TECNOLUMEN

