Ashtray with Hinged Lid - Germany, circa 1930

This two-purpose ashtray was designed in Germany circa 1930. It can be converted from a table ashtray on feet made of three metal balls, to a floor ashtray, standing on three tubular legs (delivered with the item which can be screwed on between the ashtray and the feet). In the metal semi sphere there is a glass bowl for the ashes, on the lid are attached holders for the cigarettes and matches.
